A fantastic example of a vintage Moroccan Rehamna carpet with a very abstract design including chessboard motifs and stretched incomplete lozenges. The painterly palette is knotted in saturated red, pink, seafoam green, lavender, apricot, and black. A flat weave horizontal band interrupts the pile in one area, and finishes the carpet on one end. A few areas of minor discoloration, which do not detract from the overall condition or character. Knotted in wool with goat hair present in the warp and sawtooth selvages.
