This vintage Beni Ouarain is woven in fine wool with an exceptional hand and patina. An overall lozenge network is created with elongated zig zag forms surrounded by smaller lozenges floating across the field. A few moments of spontaneity add irregularity to the piece. One small area of discoloration can be found towards the bottom (likely from henna), which does not detract from the carpet's overall condition or character. Knotted in charcoal black on an ivory ground, 100% wool.
