An extraordinary vintage Moroccan carpet from the Aït Bou Ichaouen tribe. Horizontal abrashed bands of color set the backdrop for a remarkable display of motifs. Abstract undulating lines attempt the formation of a lozenge network, but are interrupted by a scattering of square motifs. Knotted in a faded magenta, plum and aubergine ground, with motifs in light blue/green, orange, purple, ivory, and brown. A lustrous low pile construction with a beautiful patina. 100% wool.
